DESCRIPTION

For more than 50 years, the Marianist Mission has operated a prayer and Mass card ministry to support the Marianist and their ministries.

The Marianist family is comprised of the Society of Mary (Marianist brothers and priests), the Daughters of Mary Immaculate (Marianist sisters) and Lay Marianists.

Support of the Marianists and their ministries enables them to provide a quality Marianist education and to sponsor social service programs that break the cycle of poverty in the United States and around the world.

Marianists strive to engage others in their work. This involvement includes prayer, volunteering and financial donations. For example, the Marianists are committed to empowering poor women and children through education, job training and nutritional programs in Eastern Africa and India.
